Nature's Hideout: clay class

Instructors: NWACCC
Ages 5-7, 9-11:30 am
Spring is about burgeoning families. Babies of all kinds are exploring the world, emerging from hideouts: under flower petals, high up in trees, maybe low under ground. Let your imagination soar and create a world of hideouts.

The NWACCC mission is to foster visual-arts excellence with affordable classes in a fun & safe environment for children and adults, especially for under-served ones that otherwise couldn't participate. We are able to do this because of the generosity of friends and donors like you.

All classes are held at 505 West Spring Street in Fayetteville, one block south of the Walton Art Center. Scholarships are available. Find out if your child qualifies by calling Susan Hutchcroft at 479.200.0663.

Support for NWACCC is provided, in part, by the Arkansas Arts Council, an agency of the Department of Arkansas Heritage, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
